FORMER PIRATES RECEIVE STINGER AWARDS

Three former Pierrefonds Pirates were honoured recently by the Concordia Hockey program, for their achievements during the past season.

Rick Pardo, Derek Watt and Brian Taylor were all instrumental in leading the Stingers to their 7th consecutive league title and third spot in the National Championships, with a victory over the number-one ranked Regina and an overtime loss to the Saskatchewan Huskies.

Pardo, who lives in Dorval with his wife and young daughter received the Stinger Hound Dog Award, given to the most tenacious checker on the squad. Watt, the son of Mr. & Mrs. Howard Watt of 4338 Juneau, Pierrefonds, was presented with the Shot Blocker Award and Taylor, the son of Mrs. Charles Taylor of 193 Bisley St., Beaconsfield, was the winner of the Rebound Goals Award along with the Stinger Senior Mug, given to outstanding graduating players.
